Dear Xxxxx:

This letter is in response to your letter dated November 17, 1999. The nature of your letter and the information you have provided require that we respond with a General Information Letter, which is designed to provide general information, is not a statement of Department policy and is not binding on the Department. See 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.120(b) and (c), enclosed.

In your letter, you have stated and made inquiry as follows:

COMPANY is a direct-mail retailer who ships product to Illinois residents. We were formerly based in Illinois, but in 1997 we moved our offices to STATE. We are currently filing Illinois sales and income tax returns.

We have no physical location or employees in Illinois. Our product is delivered by common carrier. Our direct mailings to Illinois residents do not occur with any sort of frequency or regularity.

We maintain a non-interest-bearing checking account in Illinois. We also have a consultant who resides in Illinois.

Do we have nexus in Illinois?

For further information, please contact me at ####. I am in the office Tuesday - Thursday from 9:00-5:00.

An Illinois retailer is one who either accepts purchase orders in the State of Illinois or maintains an inventory in Illinois and fills Illinois orders from that inventory. The Illinois retailer is liable for Retailers' Occupation Tax on gross receipts from sales and must collect the corresponding Use Tax incurred by purchasers.

The definition of a "retailer maintaining a place of business in Illinois" is set forth at 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.201(i), see enclosed. An out-of-State retailer maintaining a place of business in this State is required to register with the State as an Illinois Use Tax collector. See the enclosed copy of 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.801. The retailer must collect and remit Use Tax to the State on behalf of its Illinois customers even though the retailer does not incur any Retailers' Occupation Tax liability.

The final type of retailer is simply the out-of-State retailer that does not have sufficient nexus with Illinois to be required to submit to Illinois tax law.

A retailer in this situation does not incur Retailer' Occupation Tax on sales into Illinois and is not required to collect Use Tax on behalf of its Illinois customers. However, the retailer's Illinois customers will still incur Use Tax on the purchase of the out-of-State goods and have a duty to self-assess their Use Tax liability and remit the amount directly to the State.

The United States Supreme Court in Quill Corp. v. North Dakota, 112 S.Ct. 1904 (1992), set forth the current guidelines for determining what nexus requirements must be met before a person is properly subject to a state's sales tax laws. The Supreme Court has set out a two-prong test for nexus. The first prong is whether the Due Process Clause is satisfied. Due Process will be satisfied if the person or entity purposely avails himself or itself of the benefits of an economic market in a forum state. Id. at 1910. The second prong of the Supreme Court's nexus test requires that, if due process requirements have been satisfied, the person or entity must have physical presence in the forum state to satisfy the Commerce Clause.

A physical presence does not mean simply an office or other physical building. Under Illinois tax law, it also includes the presence of any representative or other agent of the seller. The representative need not be a sales representative and it is immaterial for tax purposes that the representative's presence is temporary.

I hope this information is helpful. The Department of Revenue maintains a Web site, which can be accessed at www.revenue.state.il.us. If you have further questions related to the Illinois sales tax laws, please contact the Department's Taxpayer Information Division at (217) 782-3336.

If you are not under audit and you wish to obtain a binding Private Letter Ruling regarding your factual situation, please submit all of the information set out in items 1 through 8 of the enclosed copy of Section 1200.110(b).

Very truly yours,

Gina Roccaforte
